Anti-Bribery and Corruption Statement

February 2018

CERES is committed to promoting ethical business practices across all of our business relationships.

CERES fully supports the requirements of the UK Bribery Act as well as similar legislation in all regions in which we conduct business. CERES has implemented policies and procedures to ensure it is prepared, to the extent possible, to prevent and deter corrupt practices across our business relationships.

All CERES staff are trained so as to be aware of their responsibilities in respect Anti-Bribery and Corruption and they are empowered to act as a line of defence in the identification of any corrupt practices..

CERES maintains policies and procedures which assist its businesses in monitoring and preventing potential Bribery and Corruption and to deal with such practices appropriately if they are discovered.
